Caroline is Head of Commercial and Business Development at Innovate Finance where she engages leading firms in the FinTech space including emerging sectors such as Insurance, Big Tech and Asset Management as well as managing engagement for institutional members, consulting them on their innovation process and connecting them with the wider FinTech ecosystem of startups, capital, policy makers, press and influencers. She formally ran Innovate Finance's Partner Relation programme, managing the strategic partnership network which included relationships with the global venture capital community, consultants and legal firms. Caroline has more than a decade of experience in the financial and technology sector having spent 10 years at Bloomberg, including time with the corporate communications team where she drove collaboration between technology, political, and media communities. Prior to that, she sold Bloomberg terminal, enterprise and trading solutions products to New York Hedge Funds and London Mid-Tier Brokers.

About Innovate Finance

Innovate Finance is the independent industry body that represents and advances the global FinTech community in the UK. Our mission is to accelerate the UK's leading role in the financial services sector by directly supporting the next generation of technology-led innovators.

Innovate Finance's membership ranges from seed stage startups and global financial institutions to investors, professional services firms, and global FinTech hubs. All benefit from Innovate Finance's unique position as the single point of access to promote enabling policy and regulation, talent and skills, business opportunity and growth, and investment capital.

By bringing together and connecting the most forward-thinking participants in financial services, Innovate Finance is helping create a global financial services sector that is more transparent, more sustainable and more inclusive.
