THE PARIS CAMPUS

Since September 2016, emlyon business school has been present in Paris with a new campus, opposite Gare de Lyon, 15 boulevard Diderot. At the heart of Paris, this 5500 m<sup>2</sup> campus aims to accommodate in one location a business center, an incubator with a Makers' lab (FabLab), a Learning Hub (digital library) and flexible workspaces, which will gather students and companies.

With its state-of-the-art facilities, emlyon business school is set to host the "Women in Data Science" event in its spacious auditorium, accommodating up to 180 attendees for an engaging and informative session.

Post-event, the networking cocktail will unfold in the vibrant and tech-connected collaborative work area, complemented by the convenience of an on-site canteen, facilitating discussions, connections, and culinary enjoyment in a dynamic and conducive setting. This thoughtful allocation of spaces underscores the campus's versatility and commitment to fostering both educational excellence and professional networking.

ACCESS

The Paris campus is strategically located to ensure easy accessibility by public transport and car, just a 5-minute walk from the Gare de Lyon train station.

The entrance to the building is accessible via 15 Boulevard Diderot, 75012 Paris.
